We are extremely grateful to Richters of Palm Beach, represented by Dudley and Stefan Richter, a five-generation pillar of luxury, craftsmanship, and stewardship on the island. GLAZER HALL is honored to recognize Richters of Palm Beach with a dedicated plaque for the newly named Sweetheart Banquette. Located in the Grand Lobby, this banquette is reflective of Richters enduring commitment to Palm Beach's beauty, culture, and creative spirit.

Richters of Palm Beach is widely admired for its meticulous eye for detail and its quiet yet steady tradition of giving. Beyond their legacy on Worth Avenue, the Richter family has long supported philanthropic and community organizations, from providing design-assistance to the Palm Beach Synagogue to contributing to health-focused causes such as eating-disorder awareness. Their generosity is often understated, but its impact is unmistakable.

"The Richters were among the first families Avie and I met when we moved to Palm Beach. They are longtime champions of philanthropy and pillars of the Palm Beach community, and they have stewarded one of the island's most respected establishments for over 130 years. We are honored to be a part of their continued legacy of support for the arts and enrichment of our community's cultural landscape." – Jill Glazer

"Attending Opening Night at the Royal Poinciana Playhouse was a Richter family tradition. I would attend with my parents in the early '70s, and that continued into my adulthood with my wife Nancy. I thought I might never see the Playhouse return. It is only through the vision and generosity of Jill and Avie Glazer that generations of Palm Beachers will be able to enjoy the culture and events the new Playhouse will bring to our town. The Richter family is now proud to participate in its rebirth and can't wait to enjoy the beautiful space again." – Stefan Richter
