CHRIS GANNON
CEO, Co-Founder
Bolay Fresh Bold Kitchen

Gannon parlayed a lifelong journey in restaurants and hospitality and an early career in advertising to co-launch the fast-casual restaurant Bolay in 2016, now recognized as one of the most innovative and high-growth concepts in the United States. Named the 2020 Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year in Florida, Gannon also built a successful career as a professional polo player, becoming one of the youngest players in history to win the U.S. Open Polo Championship. Today, he cultivates that competitive drive, global perspective, and commitment to excellence to inform every facet of the 100-percent gluten-free Bolay experience—from menu innovation to team culture.

EDUCATION: Florida State University

HOMETOWN: New Orleans

CAUSES HE SUPPORTS: Gannon founded the Charity Polo Classic benefitting the Children's Cancer Center. He supports the Ryan Niece Foundation, Believe With Me, Student Azees, Outback 40 Goal Challenge, and the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (now called Blood Cancer United).

FAVORITE QUOTE: "Every man dies. Not every man really lives." —William Wallace

TOUGHEST CHALLENGE: Escape from Alcatraz Triathlon

ADVICE TO HIS YOUNGER SELF: Write more thank-you letters.

SECRET IDENTITY WOULD BE: Special Forces

TRACY L. GERBER
Managing Shareholder, West Palm Beach Office
Co-chair, Broker-Dealer Securities Litigation Practice
Greenberg Traurig

Gerber, JD, advises leading financial institutions, Wall Street firms, and private equity sponsors on complex, high-stakes employment disputes where business, regulatory, and reputational concerns intersect. A member of the International law firm's executive committee, Gerber has tried more than 100 arbitrations to final award before the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, American Arbitration Authority, and Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services. The recipient of numerous honors, including Florida Trend's "Women Leaders in Law" and a 2024 PayPal Legal Leaders Award, she is often singled out to guide senior executives through sensitive matters with discretion and strategic clarity. Gerber has also earned consecutive Chambers and Partners Tier 1 rankings.

EDUCATION: University of Florida Levin College of Law

PERSONAL MOTTO: Be your authentic self, act with integrity, be passionate about your work, and pay it forward.

INSPIRATION: My mother, who raised me on her own, built a career she is proud of, and now embraces life fully at age 84 through travel.

FIRST JOB: Dog washer when I was 11

GUILTY PLEASURE: Shopping

SPERO GEORGEDAKIS
Founder, CEO
Good Greek Moving & Storage

Georgedakis is the owner and founder of Good Greek Moving & Storage, headquartered in Jupiter. A former police officer who investigated moving scams, Georgedakis set out to raise the bar in an industry often plagued by bad actors. His mission was to create a company that would become the gold standard for integrity, professionalism, and customer care. Good Greek is the largest independent mover in Florida and has earned national recognition by the American Trucking Association (ATA). He was appointed to the ATA Moving & Storage Conference Executive Committee. Good Greek has partnerships with more than 25 professional and collegiate sports organizations.

HOMETOWN: Brooklyn, New York

SECRET TO SUCCESS: When I founded Good Greek, I drew on the discipline and values I developed in law enforcement to build a culture rooted in faith, honor, strength, and courage. From rigorous background checks and drug testing to our industry-leading Superhero Academy training program, every system we've put in place is designed with one goal in mind: delivering exceptional customer service while maintaining the highest standards of safety and professionalism.

JILL GLAZER
Co-Founder
Glazer Hall

Glazer recently ticked off the latest item on her bucket list: the debut of her eponymous cultural arts center, the newest in Palm Beach. She and her husband, Avie Glazer, co-founded the venue at The Royal Poinciana Plaza that features a 24,000-square-foot waterfront space. Glazer Hall hosts year-round performing arts, educational outreach, and community and social programming. She has served on the boards of Tulane University and Palm Beach Day Academy, among many others, and is a director of the Palm Beach Civic Association. The Glazers have been Palm Beach residents for nearly 25 years and support educational, medical, and cultural organizations across the country. She has received the Tulane Alumni Volunteer Award and the Hillel School Volunteer Award.

EDUCATION: Tulane University

INSPIRATIONS: Daughters Kendall and Libby for their dedication, creativity, and the way they have stayed true to themselves while building their business, Stoney Clover Lane.

STARTS HER DAY: At Starbucks on Worth Avenue with her dog, Eloise

IF SHE COULD START OVER, SHE WOULD: I wouldn't change a thing. I've always followed what feels meaningful to me.

FAVORITE TRAVEL SPOTS: New Orleans and Beverly Hills (specifically the Beverly Hills Hotel)
