ABOUT OUR HONOREES

Less than three months after opening its doors, GLAZER HALL has already taken its place as one of Palm Beach's most meaningful cultural achievements, made possible through the extraordinary vision and generosity of Jill and Avie Glazer.

Tonight's inaugural gala, headlined by Sheryl Crow, marks not only a celebration of the arts, but also a heartfelt tribute to the couple whose commitment brought a long-silent landmark back to life. After lying dormant for more than 20 years, the historic Royal Poinciana Playhouse has been transformed into a vibrant, world-class cultural destination, restored with care, purpose, and profound respect for its legacy.

Palm Beach residents since 2002, Jill and Avie Glazer recognized what others may have overlooked. They did not just see an empty building, but rather a rare opportunity to create something enduring for the community. Their investment, along with their leadership as co-founders, reflects a level of dedication that goes far beyond philanthropy. It is a gift of vision, stewardship, and a mission to inspire audiences of all ages and deepen human connection through the arts.

The Glazer family's longstanding support of educational, medical, and cultural causes across the country is well known, but their impact here in Palm Beach is especially profound. In restoring this beloved landmark, they have preserved an important piece of history, while reimagining its future for generations to come.

With deep gratitude, we honor Jill and Avie Glazer for their remarkable leadership, generosity, and unwavering dedication to the arts and Palm Beach. Because of them, the curtain has risen once again, and Palm Beach is more vibrant, more connected, and poised for a dynamic cultural future.

ABOUT TONIGHT'S PERFORMANCE

Sheryl Crow

Songwriter. Activist. Rock star. Woman. Champion. Mother. Nine-time GRAMMY Award® winner Sheryl Crow is many things, but at the core, she is a champion of the arts and brings her talents to GLAZER HALL to help us celebrate our first season as headliner for our inaugural Gala.

Twenty-five years after winning her first Grammy, as well as Record of the Year and Best Female Pop Vocal Performance for "All I Wanna Do," the Kennett, Missouri-born guitarist/vocalist/creative thought about all she'd done, the places she'd been, the lives that touched hers – and saw the rich tapestry her journey had become. Crow's is a career beyond dreams, with songs that defined the third wave of feminism, a rockist's ability to sweep the pop charts without losing any edge and enough wide-open Midwestern joy to captivate the world. Her first nine studio albums have sold 35 million copies worldwide; seven charted in the Top 10, and five were certified for Multi-Platinum sales. Crow has been feted by a new generation of singer-songwriters who have covered her songs and talked about her influence, including Phoebe Bridgers, H.E.R, Haim, Maren Morris, Lorde, Sasami, Best Coast, and Brandi Carlile. In 2019, Crow released her critically acclaimed album THREADS via The Valory Music Co., a collection of collaborations made with and in tribute to artists with whom Crow has musical connections. And in turn, she seeks to inspire people through her music and songs, especially the younger generation. "The passion and ability of our young people to dig deep and express themselves energizes and encourages me endlessly," Crow says. "It thrills me to see their passion and will to change the world." Most recently, the full-length documentary film based on Crow's life and career, entitled Sheryl, premiered to critical acclaim at the 2022 SXSW Film Festival ahead of its network premiere on SHOWTIME. An intimate story of song and sacrifice, Sheryl navigates an iconic yet arduous musical career while the artist battles sexism, ageism, depression, cancer, and the price of fame, before harnessing the power of her gift.

Crow is known as well for her passionate support of multiple charities, including The Breast Cancer Research Foundation, The World Food Program, Feeding America, ADOPT A CLASSROOM, the Elton John AIDS Foundation, MusiCares, the Delta Children's Home and many other worthy causes.

A MESSAGE FROM THE MAYOR

I am profoundly grateful to Jill and Avie Glazer for their visionary commitment and generosity in bringing the magic of Glazer Hall to life. As Mayor, I see this as a magnificent addition to our thriving cultural landscape; as a patron, I have personally enjoyed the spectacular variety of performances, both with family and friends. It took visionaries like the Glazers to take the historic 1958 John Volk-designed building, and keep its soul alive through restoring and repairing– to create a modern space that continues to have the heart of the old Royal Poinciana Playhouse. Their dedication to our community is deeply appreciated, and I am thrilled to honor them tonight.

Sincerely,

Danielle H. Moore
Mayor of Palm Beach

A MESSAGE FROM OUR EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Dear Patrons and Friends,

When we raised the curtain for the very first time on January 22 with the Amazing Acrobats of Shanghai Circus, we had a dream, a lot of passion, and a hope that this community would embrace our wide range of artistic offerings. Looking back at the end of this incredible first season, we are truly overwhelmed by your support. From American Ballet Theatre to Preservation Hall Jazz Band, from Gipsy Kings to Le Boom Boom Burlesque, from Walter Issaacson to Marshall Tucker Band, from Emmylou Harris to The Beach Boys- there was truly something for everyone this season. Speakers, dance, cabaret, family, jazz, pop, rock, opera, Arts in Education, and more. You came out, supported us, and you have truly become part of the GLAZER HALL family.

Because of you, our little theater is a space for art, connection, and storytelling. Whether you laughed with us at Fran Lebowitz, cried during one of our family films, or simply clapped for the hard work of our amazing staff and crew, you made a difference. From joining as a member, naming a seat or space in the building, or just purchasing tickets- we thank you for your support.

You filled our house with love, energy, and applause. Thank you for making our debut season a success. We are already busy planning for next year, and we can't wait to share our next journey with you.

I am so deeply honored to have been a part of the Glazers vision. Their leadership and passion for this project is nothing short of amazing and inspirational. Honoring them tonight is just a small testament to the immense dedication they have poured into this project. I am truly grateful to have a front row seat at the opening of this theater and cannot wait to see what the future brings.

Sincerely,

Allison Stockel

Dear Jill & Avie,

Thank you for your extraordinary commitment to the arts and to the community GLAZER HALL will nurture.

Your support does more than restore a space for creativity—it brings people together, inspires new voices, and enriches the Palm Beach cultural fabric in ways that ripple far beyond the local impact.

- Because of Glazer Hall, ideas are given space to grow, artists are empowered to share their gifts, and the community becomes a more vibrant, connected place. That kind of impact is both rare and deeply meaningful.

With gratitude and admiration,

Wyn Bradley & Chris Korge
